Secondly in ⊗ G.o. No Rl 1053-56/RA 113-40-28 dated 28th November 1941, sanction has been accorded for relieving all the clerks in the Election Commissioner's office with effect from 1st December 1941, and no mention has been made therein about relieving the peons of his office. It is submitted that in his letter ⊗ No T 362 dated 1st/2nd December 1941, the Election Commissioner has stated that the peons of his office would be relieved on the 4th inst (Dec 41) as their services were required for checking and sending records, a couple of days after the 1st December 1941. In these circumstances the continuance of these from 1st December 41 to 4th Dec 41 (four days) has become inevitable seems to be in order. If approved, sanction may be accorded for drawing the pay of the two peons for four days as desired.
